Probus Clubs

Probus is an international association of retired and semiretired PROfessional, BUSiness men and women, executives from all fields of endeavor.

Probus Clubs meet once a month to hear an invited speaker cover a topic of interest, followed by lunch and conversation. Various cultural and social activities are organized, such as day trips, entertainment outings, walking, bridge, investment and book clubs.

The club is flexible in its activities and exists solely for the enjoyment and benefit of its members who like the camaraderie and fellowship it brings.
